GIRL'S BODY FOUND IN WELL AT CROFTON

DEATH AND DAMAGE MARK LONG PATH OF HURRICANE IN CUBA

Scores Injured and at Least One Dead After Terrific Wind Lashes Northwestern Part of Island—Tidal Waves Reported at Three Points—Communication Interrupted

HAVANA, Sept. 1 (AP).—A tropical hurricane with winds as strong as ninety-two miles an hour swept over Northwestern Cuba today and tonight, leaving in its wake at least one death, injuries to sixty-four persons and widespread property damage. Two men caught looting property were shot and killed.

Many homes along Havana's waterfront were abandoned, but police said property damage in Havana was comparatively light. Communications were interrupted along the northern coast of the island and it was impossible to learn the extent of damage in that area.

SOLDIERS ON GUARD
Looters were reported active along Havana's waterfront and police, soldiers and sailors were ordered to patrol the area and shoot looters on sight.

Havana's streets were deserted after military authorities had warned residents it would be dangerous to leave their homes. Strong winds and heavy rain continued through the early evening, but the National Observatory in its latest bulletin said the storm centre had passed near and to the northeast of Havana on a westward course.

TIDAL WAVES REPORTED
The communication department received indirect advice tidal waves had swept Calabrier, Isabela de Bagua and Varadero.

Fragmentary advice from Canagay reported several towns between Santa Clara and Ciego de Avila had been heavily damaged. Roofs were ripped from houses as torrential rains fell.

NO DAMAGE REPORTED
MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 1 (AP).—Except for a forty-two-mile blow at Key West, at the southern tip of the peninsula, Florida today felt few effects from the tropical disturbance that Havana and the Northern coast of Cuba experienced.

Gale winds that whirled about the outer edge of the storm-lashed Key West for several hours, but gradually diminished with no damage reported, as the disturbance passed westward in the vicinity of Havana.

BANKS GIVING GOOD SERVICE

Loosening of Credit Suggested at Saint John—Sitting of Commission

SAINT JOHN, Sept. 1 (CP).—With the Maritime Province viewpoint recorded, the Royal Commission on Banking tonight turned toward the two provinces remaining to be visited, Ontario and Quebec. Today the commissioners were given a general assurance banks are, in the main, giving satisfactory service to the people of this province.

Welcoming the commissioners, G. H. Cockburn, president of the New Brunswick Executive Council, testified to the fact the banks are giving good service, although he suggested, a loosening up of credit in certain instances might have helped. Mayor James W. Brittain, of Saint John, expressed pride in the Canadian banking system.

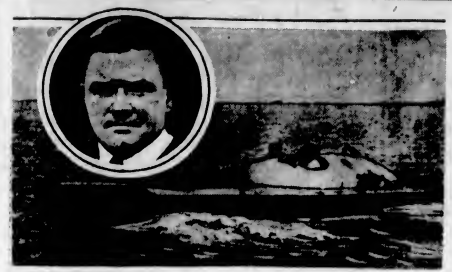

NO POLITICAL CONTROL
But, while the Canadian banks were given general approval, suggestions for improvement of finance and banking were not lacking. Through the medium of Saint John Board of Trade and local investment dealers, the commission was warned "a politically controlled central bank of Canada is undesirable and unnecessary."

Provincial governments, the Board of Trade suggested, should be granted a measure of joint control over banking.

Twelve Swept to Death by Floods
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 1 (AP).—Twelve persons, most of them women or children, drowned today when they were washed into the sea by floods at the mouth of the River Atoyac, dispatches received here from Vera Cruz said.

HARVESTING DELAYED BY HEAVY DOWNPOUR
SASKATOON, Sept. 1 (CP).—Suffering from intense heat and searing drought for the past two months, Saskatchewan today saw harvesting operations indefinitely suspended as the heaviest rainfall of the year fell, damaging grain in stock and threatening to cause loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars by lowered wheat grades.

Seeks Harmsworth Trophy

HUBERT Scott-Paine, British power-boat manufacturer, shown in the inset above, will pit his 137-horsepower defender of the Harmsworth Trophy, on St. Clair River today in the first of their series for the cup.

General O'Duffy To Head Merger Of Irish Parties

Proposal to Form New United Ireland Party to Oppose Republicans Approved by Three Units—Conventions Called—General Election Expected Soon—Trade Deadlock Issue

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Sept. 1 (AP).—The Centre Party and William T. Cosgrave's Cumann na nGaedheal, in separate meetings tonight, agreed to accept proposals to merge with General Eoin O'Duffy's banned National Guard, thus taking definite steps toward establishment of a new United Ireland Party.

FIVE KILLED ON BRITISH TANKER

Explosion Attributed to Spontaneous Combustion of Gas

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 2 (AP).—Five members of the crew of the British oil tanker Atholl Queen, including the chief engineer, were killed in an explosion aboard ship today before yesterday, it was learned today.

The explosion, apparently caused by spontaneous combustion of gas in a tank from which oil had been unloaded here, occurred shortly after the vessel left Yokohama bound for Manila.

A portion of the upper deck, the master's cabin and the wireless room were damaged by the blast. The Atholl Queen returned to the wharves with the bodies this morning. The tanker arrived in Yokohama on August 28 with a cargo of oil from Florida.

Inquiry Is Ordered Into Relief Office Administration Here

City Costs Placed at $30,000 by Alderman Walter Luney—Twenty-Two Men Employed on Staff Here—Only Two in Nanaimo

A COMPLETE investigation into the administration of relief by the public works committee, was ordered at yesterday's meeting of the City Council, to ascertain why it is that Nanaimo, with 600 persons on relief, has only two relief officers, and that Victoria, with 1,200 on relief, has a staff of twenty-two persons.

Alderman Walter Luney precipitated the investigation by declaring that he had looked into complaints made by Walter Inward and found that Mr. Inward had been "more sinned against than sinned."

LARGE STAFF
"In Nanaimo only two persons are used in the relief department where 600 are registered. In Victoria we have just double the number on relief and employ a staff of twenty-two. That is what makes our cost of administration so high—$30,000 a year I believe," Alderman Luney declared.

Following the debate, Alderman Andrew McGavin seconded Alderman Luney's motion that the relief administration be investigated by the public works committee with E. G. Snowden, city relief officer; John Day and H. Craford, of the Provincial Government relief department, present. The motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

ANTAGONISM
Alderman Luney said that he had approached Mr. Craford and Mr. Day and was informed that applicants for relief were treated in an antagonistic spirit. They were made to wait as long as an hour and a half to see Mr. Snowden, and were compelled to take 20 per cent of their relief.

CLAIM NAZIS GUARD PEACE

But Proclamation by Hitler Justifies Force to Seize Power

NURNBERG, Germany, Sept. 1. —No king was ever more and more enthusiastically than Chancellor Adolf Hitler today, when, amid the shouts of 15,000 selected Nazi followers, he addressed the annual party congress, he slowly strode through the long convention hall to the rostrum.

An exaltation of the Nazi movement as the guardian of peace and the conqueror of Bolshevism was the keynote to speeches given at the first plenary session.

JUSTIFIES FORCE
"Our predecessors talked about democracy, but avoided the people," Hitler spoke of authority, but fought alongside the common people. "Beginning this year there were weeks during which we escaped Communistic chaos only by a hair's breadth."

QUOTES HISTORIAN
The statement cited the historian Mommsen as authority for the belief that Jewry is "a ferment of decomposition" in the lives of nations.

Regarding the freedom of criticism, the statement asserted that "we will never forsake our slogan concerning the right of free criticism and lose the inner unity of the party."

No reference was made in the document to the Nazis' foreign policy.

TIGHTENING UP DEFENCE UNITS

Events in Germany Viewed With Alarm in France—Forts Completed

PARIS, Sept. 1 (AP).—Premier Edouard Daladier assured his Cabinet today France's new line of steel defence works which stretches for 125 miles along the German frontier is adequate to block invasion.

The new line of United States toward disarmament at Geneva in face of Hitlerite activities along the border is worrying the Government, which is tightening up its military and economic structure.

Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour reported to his colleagues that the German situation is becoming more serious on the border with Austria and Germany.

AWAITS VIEWS OF U.S.
M. Paul-Boncour is particularly anxious for confirmation from Norman Davis, United States disarmament representative, now on his way to Europe. United States will make efficient control of armaments a necessary preliminary to arms limitation.

DEATH TOLL GROWS
TUCUMCARI, N.M., Sept. 1 (AP).—The death toll from the wreck of the Golden State Limited, near here, Thursday, went to nine tonight with the death of Mrs. Marjorie Blackburn, fifty-two, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Those killed were Mrs. Elva Getchell, thirty-eight; Mrs. Elsie Steffen, forty-five, and Kenneth Steffen, twelve, her son, all of San Francisco.

The most seriously injured were the husbands of the two women and R. A. Vandenberg, forty, of Berkeley, who was on duty at the crossing. The Getchell and Steffen families were starting on a vacation trip to the coast, and were carrying their equipment. Their automobile stopped at the head of a line of traffic held up at the crossing by a passing train. Just as the machine pulled on to the track, another train, going in the opposite direction, reached the crossing.

Gruesome Discovery on Vacant Farm Mystifies Provincial Investigators

Assumes New Duties In B.C. Service
Young Woman Registered at Duncan Hotel as Miss B. Brown—Body Found in Pit With Suitcase Tied to Hand With Picture-Frame Wire—Cover Was Over Well Top

MYSTERY surrounds the death of a young woman, believed to be Miss B. Brown, of Vancouver, whose body was found in a disused well on the H. A. Lilly farm, one mile south of Crofton, yesterday. Investigators of the Provincial Police are divided in their opinions as to whether it is a murder or a suicide.

The body, taken to an undertaking establishment in Duncan, revealed a bluish tinge about the neck and face that might indicate prussic acid poisoning. On the other hand, the girl's suitcase was attached to her left wrist with picture-frame wire, and planks entirely covered the well. This latter aspect of the case would indicate foul play.

Discovery of the woman's body was made by Charles Eccleston, former member of the Victoria fire department, but who is now sheep ranching in the Crofton district. He was well having run dry, he went in search of a new supply, and lifting the planks from the old Lilly farm well, made the gruesome find.

The body had been immersed in water for nearly six weeks, it is estimated. Cause of death will not be definitely known until after an autopsy has been performed.

REGISTERED AT HOTEL
Inspector Robert Owens, Staff Sergeant Roger Peachey and Sergeant Richard Harvey proceeded to the scene, and as a result of their investigations discovered that a young woman, about twenty-five years of age, answering the description of the dead girl, arrived at the Trousdale Hotel in Duncan shortly after 9 o'clock on the morning of July 18. She registered as Miss B. Brown, of Vancouver.

She went directly to her room and remained there from about 9:30 a.m. on July 18 until 7 p.m. on July 19. She never left her room during that time, and refused to answer knocks on her door, police learned from Mrs. Perry Thoburn, the manageress, and the Misses Iris and Gladys Stock, maids. The woman did not order any meals, and appeared very tired when she first arrived at the hotel.

ITALIAN TO TRY HIS LUCK TODAY

De Pinedo Starting at Dawn After Distance Flying Record

NEW YORK, Sept. 1 (AP).—General Francesco de Pinedo said tonight he would take off at dawn on a projected non-stop flight to Bagdad in an effort to set a new distance flying record. He received favorable weather reports for the trans-Atlantic hop.

Attendants at Floyd Bennett Field hastened to prepare the Italian aviator's plane, the Santa Lucia. De Pinedo's flight, an effort to wrest from Paul Codos and Maurice Rossi their newly-acquired laurels for a non-stop flight, probably will be the last spectacular venture of the season. If he sets a new distance mark, he also will establish a solo non-stop record.

AN ALARM SYSTEM
The crack long-distance pilot has contrived a device which he calls an alarm system for keeping him awake. It consists of a siren in the control cockpit and a contraption to slap water in his face. The device can be set so that any deviation from the course or change of altitude will set it in operation.

His proposed route was from Floyd Bennett Field to Newfoundland, a leg that likely will take him over Nova Scotia, over the Atlantic to French coast at New Rochelle; to Rome and Bari, Italy, and then to the Isle of Rhodes, Cyprus, and over Syria to Bagdad.

TAKES THE CHAIR AT FINAL SESSION
Premier R. B. Bennett Presides Over Bar Association in Annual Meeting

OTTAWA, Sept. 1 (CP).—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett today closed the eighteenth annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association. Arriving back in the capital in the early morning, Mr. Bennett, with his sister, Mrs. W. D. Herridge, entertained the delegates at luncheon and acceded to a request to preside for the remaining business of the three-day programme.

Mr. Bennett spoke of the high standing Canada enjoyed among the nations of Europe, as illustrated by the discussions of representatives of thirty nations in London. Canada was looked upon as a most favored nation. Election of officers saw Hon. N. W. Rowell, K.C., re-elected as president.

Fear Fresh Outbreak of Forest Fire

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 1 (AP).—Fearful that the changing winds and higher temperatures would cause the great Coast Range forest fires to rage again with new fury, United States forestry officials today rushed fire-fighters into the Cedar Creek sector, where the flames, now under control, were reported to be gaining headway.

The area of danger, about sixty miles southwest of Portland by air, holds several timber "islands" missed by the flames that blackened hundreds of square miles of fine timber in four Oregon coast counties last week.

Save Ex-Chief From Lynching

SANTIAGO, Cuba, Sept. 1 (AP).—Government troops today thwarted an attempt to lynch former Chief of Police Manuel Armas, who has been sought since the overthrow of the Machado regime. The soldiers arrested Armas and hustled him to safety behind prison walls.

Accepts Resignation Of Nova Scotia Gov't

HALIFAX, Sept. 1 (CP).—Resignation of Premier Gordon S. Hargrave's defeated Conservative Government was accepted today by Lieutenant-Governor W. H. Covert. It was disclosed late tonight. The Cabinet, however, was requested to remain in power until Tuesday, when the new Liberal Government under Angus L. Macdonald will be inaugurated.

Bobby Pearce Wins World Championship With Lots to Spare

Makes Procession of Race With Ted Phelps, Defending Titleholder, Crossing Line in Fast Time Nearly Quarter-Mile Ahead

TORONTO, Sept. 1 (CP).—Still toying with the great names of sculling, giant Bobby Pearce, of Australia, tonight won the world's professional championship by defeating Ted Phelps, stocky Thames boatman from England, by nearly a quarter of a mile in a three-mile race for the title.

Pearce's time for the three miles was 19 minutes and 26 seconds and the official announcement said Phelps' crossed the finish line 1 minute and 10 seconds later. It was just as easy for Pearce as it was for him to sweep aside the amateurs in other days, and win two Olympic championships, the historic Diamond Sculls and the British Empire title. A crowd of 45,000 watched him pull away from the champion in the first 25 yards and parade to the finish in a triumphant procession.

PHELPS ROWED OUT
Phelps collapsed at the finish, after pulling over the line, a minute and 30 seconds after the new champion had driven his shell across the finish line.

The same 28-to-30-strokes-a-minute rate that left the amateurs gasping in his wake all over the world had Phelps beaten before the first one-mile leg was over. The Englishman fought grimly to the first turn but it was all he could do to stay within four lengths of Pearce.

His short stroke was raised to 34 at times to enable him to do this. At the turn, the curly-headed champion, who won the title on the Thames in 1920 from Bert Barry, of England, was on the verge of being out-distanced. Despite the fact that he had quite as good a turn as Pearce, he was not able to catch up.

Suggest Canadian Club Enlist Younger People

Delegates at Regional Council Advocate Wider Scope of Activities—Delegates Review Work of Year and Plan for Future

Widening the scope of activities of Canadian Clubs to include the younger people of communities in which organizations exist, was stressed at the annual meeting of the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs of British Columbia, held at the Empress Hotel here yesterday.

The subject was opened by delegates from the Comox-Courtenay Club and was given the fullest support by the delegates from other points and it is possible this will be one of the major movements of the club council during the coming year.

APPEAL FOR YOUNG

B. C. Nicholas, who spoke on Canadian Club work, told the delegates that a greater effort should be made to interest young men and women in the ideals of this great national organization. "Canada depends on its youth and Canadian Clubs should make use of its opportunity to interest the young in the movement," Mr. Nicholas said. The speaker also referred to the activities of Canadian Clubs and the part they were taking in the development of a true national spirit in the Dominion.

Vancouver delegates reported their club was preparing to make a drive for younger members this year.

The annual meeting was officially opened at 9:30 o'clock with delegates in attendance from many parts of the Island and the Mainland. Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, chairman of the council, presided. The morning session was devoted mainly to the receipt of reports and discussion of plans for the new club year.

The Regional Council for British Columbia contributed valuable service since its establishment, and the delegates voiced their approval of the work of the officers for their work in visiting clubs and taking an interest in the activities of the individual units affiliated with the council.

LUNCHEON AT NOON

Immediately following the adjournment of the morning session, delegates and members of the executives of the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs of Victoria, had lunch in the Princess Louise private dining-room of the hotel. At the luncheon J. R. McLean, national secretary of the Associated Clubs of Canadian Clubs, of Ottawa, gave a short address in which he outlined future plans.

Mr. McLean explained that plans for the coming year depended a great deal upon available finances. However, he stated the association had already arranged for subjects upon a series of subjects which should be of general interest to club members. These subjects he outlined as: Pacific Relations, Canadian and American Relations, Central Banking, Social Insurance and the New Canadian.

REPORTS PRESENTED

Extension of the Canadian Club movement to other towns and cities in British Columbia was stressed in the report of the chairman of the Regional Council, Mrs. P. B. Scurrah.

Mrs. Scurrah said: "There are a number of towns and cities in British Columbia where Canadian Clubs are possible, places where they could successfully function and be of real service to the communities. Most of the interior towns are more or less isolated and they have few opportunities to hear speakers on national or international questions that are of wide interest to Canadians. In these days, when every community is affected by world conditions, it is important that outlying towns have that opportunity of hearing speakers who have messages that may be of importance, or are at least of great interest to all."

In her report, Mrs. Scurrah referred to the value of the co-operation extended to the Regional Council by the National Association and also referred to the assistance given by officers of the council during the past year with special mention and thanks.

W. T. Strath presented the report of finances and a review of the work of the council during the past year. Mr. Strath is secretary-treasurer of the council and had charge of arrangements of itineraries for speakers and during his term of office visited all clubs on the Island.

Receipts during the year totaled $1,016.88, expenditures $604.31, leaving a cash balance of $412.57. Total administrative expenditures were only $132.58.

During the afternoon delegates were guests of the local club to an automobile tour of the city and district and a visit to "Benvenuto" as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butcher. The conference concluded with the official dinner held at the Empress Hotel at 7 o'clock.

SEES DANGERS

Private ownership. He does not believe that state ownership in general could be as effective as private ownership, except in certain undertakings of a monopolistic character, such as railways and public utilities. In Germany, railways are nationalized, but seem to be operating successfully.

The present regime in Germany, with it can be included that of Italy—the two great European nations going back as far as the Great War, and the change from an imperial dynasty to the system of democratic rule. Continued opposition to the system of parliamentary government by various groups, political and otherwise, gradually brought about the unification of the dissident groups, with the result that it only remained for Hitler to solidify the opposing factions into one great movement and successfully launch a new Germany, Dr. Wolfers explained.

Dr. Wolfers made the explanation, however, to a question, as to how long it required to change Germany from the democratic system of parliamentary government to the Hitler dictatorship. Regarding the C.C.F. movement in Canada, Dr. Wolfers said he had discussed the proposal with a number of persons while at Banff, but without further study he would not care to make any pronouncement concerning its future.

NATIONAL SPIRIT

Dr. Wolfers referred briefly to the anti-Jewish movement in Germany. He declared the underlying idea was to consolidate the national spirit of the German people by the purification of the race, believing that the German people had not had a chance to express that spirit without being disturbed by foreign influences in the midst. It was not as supposed by outsiders that Germany had other motives, particularly that of preserving positions and higher employment for the coming generations of the nation.

For a number of years Dr. Wolfers has been associated with the Deutsche Hochschule für Politik at Berlin, which has been taken over by the Hitler regime. Dr. Wolfers does not intend to return to Germany, but will accept a professorship at Yale University.

Asked concerning the possibility of a return of monarchy to Germany, Dr. Wolfers said: "There are large groups in Germany in favor of it, but Hitler is already on record as being opposed to it. What may happen when President Hindenburg passes on is another matter."

INQUIRY IS ORDERED

INTO RELIEF OFFICE ADMINISTRATION HERE

Their allowance out in milk tickets, whether they wanted milk or not, he was told.

"The relief department is the largest department in the City Hall and yet we only have a committee of three or four administering it, as compared with the whole council for public works matters, which at present are not costly," the alderman continued.

MAKE DEDUCTIONS

Another complaint voiced by Alderman Luney was that if a man earned $12 a month separate from relief, $9 was deducted from his relief allowance from the city. This sort of thing, he contended, discouraged men from obtaining work on their own.

"Ventilation of all departments can do no harm," Alderman R. T. Williams stated, in supporting Alderman Luney's motion.

Alderman P. R. Brown, speaking as a member of the relief committee,

After Storm Lashed New Jersey Coast

German people that associated the change from imperialism to democracy to Germany's defeat in the Great War. This, in itself, lurked in the minds of the masses and therefore the constitution of that day was born with a blight upon itself which never could have been eradicated. The other drawback goes back to the days when Germany was fighting against Communism and the French, Polish and foreign pressure.

Disappointed hopes, the speaker said, led to a widening of the gulf between the opponents and the government of the day. In the old democracy there was a common ground of understanding between the opposing factions, but not so in the new democracy of Germany. Germany had four powerful groups—Communists, Republicans, Monarchists and National Socialists, and it was not possible to align these groups into any one ideal. There were two other influences at work—organized labor seeking for power, and on the other hand the financial, industrial and agrarian group. There was nothing to balance the force of massed public demand. There was not sufficient strength in either group without a compromise in some form or other, with the result that the taxpayer was being robbed on both sides.

The appeal of the Nationalist Socialist was twofold, Dr. Wolfers declared, and was one of the main reasons why the masses rushed to support the new party, which would govern for all groups. One appeal was to the National and one to the Socialist. It was successful, as future events would show.

CONTROL OF INDUSTRY

Dealing with state control of industry, Dr. Wolfers remarked that it was not the aim of Germany or Italy to nationalize industry or set up a system of state ownership. An effort is to be made, he stated, to build up an authority that will be strong enough to function for the two main groups—labor and capital.

Touching on possible future developments, Dr. Wolfers intimated there were sources of unrest all over Europe. "You must realize that people who feel they have not received a full measure of justice are not very comfortable neighbors. There is a feeling that the pacific tendencies of dictatorship might, if necessary, should arise, be altered to militaristic and lead to some warlike expression. But I believe the dictatorship is better able to withstand any wave of public passion once it is well established. We are fully aware that Europe is full of unrest and full of deep conflict. There you have the Bolshevik, the Fascist and the democracy of the West, all of which tends to complicate the situation. We are not entitled to feel too pessimistic, and whether Germany will continue to be pacific under its dictatorship I cannot prophesy, and can only express the hope that she will," concluded the speaker.

Dr. Wolfers was introduced by Mrs. W. G. Wilson, and the vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, president of the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs in British Columbia. W. T. Strath was chairman.

DEMOCRACY CHALLENGED

Dr. Arnold Wolfers, of Berlin, Says Dictatorship Being Watched Abroad

"Parliamentary democracy of the world, and particularly of Europe, is up against a very real and deep-seated challenge due to the widespread interest being taken in the dictatorships of Germany and Italy," declared Dr. Arnold Wolfers, formerly associated with the Institute of Politics in Berlin, Germany, in an address to the Men's and Women's Canadian Club of Victoria at a dinner at the Empress Hotel here last night.

Dr. Wolfers came to Victoria at the request of the Regional Council of the Canadian Clubs of British Columbia to speak on "The Breakdown of Parliamentary Democracy in Europe." Dr. Wolfers has been attending the Pacific Relations Conference at Banff as the German representative of Germany and Italy.

Dr. Wolfers' address dealt mainly with the trend of events in Germany and the background for the revolution which changed the governmental system of that nation from a parliamentary democracy to one of dictatorship. There were, he said, two sides to be considered when dealing with the subject of the radical change which came to Germany. One was the spiritual and the other the economic order of things.

He related the difficulties that faced the republic almost at the very beginning of its regime in 1918. There was a state of mind of the largest plank was a two by twelve, and even this was firmly in place.

Whether the girl had been tossed into the well after being murdered, or whether she took poison and then lowered herself into the well has not yet been determined. However, it is thought the latter act would be highly improbable inasmuch as the plank would hardly slip into place again, and the girl would have some difficulty getting through an aperture only one foot wide.

INQUEST TONIGHT

An autopsy will be made today of the girl's body and an inquest will be held in Duncan tonight, police stated.

In the meantime a check-up of stages is being made to see if anyone got off at the empty two-story house on the southbound strip on the night Miss Brown employed a taxi man to drive her there.

A writ was served on her left wrist had stopped at 1:40 o'clock. It was a white gold-filled watch of Swiss make, with fifteen-jewel movement. On the outside case, which was of oval shape, was the cipher W-991-1 or V. The latter character could not be definitely determined. Inside the case were two small spheres. They were 8-522-M and 1452.

Inside the suitcase, which was attached to her left wrist, were found wearing apparel, a clock and a four-pound electric iron. The clock had stopped at 12:31 o'clock. A repair mark "Dec. 30 M. and D." was found on the clock, but a check with Mitchell & Duncan, of this city failed to reveal any record of such a repair job. The cipher Q-H-3 also was found on the clock. In addition the clothing, toilet set, and clock and iron, police also found one

About 8 o'clock on the night of July 19, police learned, Miss Brown inquired the telephone number of a taxi company. She telephoned to Ernest Sedola and inquired the rate to Crofton, and ordered the taxi.

Mr. Sedola drove her to a spot a little south of Crofton, where she ordered him to stop near a large empty house. The gate to the garden was barred, but she told the taxi driver not to worry; that she was all right. She said she was expecting friends from the North.

Mr. Sedola told police that the woman, although a total stranger to him, appeared to be well acquainted with the locality. Being unable to do anything more for the woman, he returned to Duncan. When he left, the woman's friends had not arrived.

DESCRIPTION GIVEN

The young woman found at the bottom of the well was described as five feet, five inches in height, and about 130 to 140 pounds. She has auburn hair. When taken from the well her body had a peculiar reddish color, with a bluish tinge about the neck and face. Her clothing was of the best, and her finger nails well manicured, denoting she was unaccustomed to heavy chores.

She was fully clothed in a two-piece black crepe suit, nigger brown hose, black low shoes, bought at Munday's shoe store in Victoria; black hat, light fitting and of the urban type, and silk underwear.

A wrist watch on her left wrist had stopped at 1:40 o'clock. It was a white gold-filled watch of Swiss make, with fifteen-jewel movement. A WOMAN IN TROUBLE

Muddy Complexion—Rheumatism—Overweight—Too Tired to Work

If this woman had taken a different remedy for each of her complaints, she would have been kept very busy! Imagine too the length of time that would have been required to effect an all-round cure!

In actual fact, she took only one medicine. And she took that medicine for but six weeks before she saw every one of her complaints fading away. The simple explanation is that all her troubles arose from one common cause.

In a letter she says:—"Since I started taking Kruschen six weeks ago, my health has greatly improved. My complexion, which had a muddy appearance, is changed to a clear and healthy look. My rheumatism has almost gone. My weight two months ago was 160 lbs., and yesterday, when I was weighed by the same scales, I weighed 145 lbs. This decrease has helped me wonderfully, for I don't feel half so tired, and am able to work better than I have done for months. I shall never be without Kruschen after this."—(Miss) A. J. R.

Half the complaints that afflict humanity—from simply feeling "off colour" to acute rheumatism—can all be traced back to one root cause—internal sluggishness.

There is one sure, safe way to keep yourself regular inside—the "little daily dose" of Kruschen Salts. Kruschen is a scientific combination of six mineral salts which keep your eliminating organs in proper tune and so clear away the waste matter that clogs your system and poisons the blood. Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle.

Stealing a Camel Is Worse Than Murder In Wild Baluchistan

Flirting Next Worst Offence, Sinclair Learns—Finds Purest Race in World With No Diseases Nor Love for Strangers

By GORDON SINCLAIR
KALAT, Baluchistan—Back in the wild black hills of Afghanistan they give you six years in jail for a crime for which a bottle of beer is a crime for folks to be out at night, and an unwell woman just can't be a nice girl.

In the deep green jungles of Borneo it's an unpardonable sin for a man to ever mention his own name, in the red mud villages of Southern India no woman will name her own husband.

In Ball the dead must be burned in the same order as they're born; in Siam folks often keep potted corpses in the family bungalow and build houses for ghosts in the back yard.

In New Guinea it's illegal for people to wear cloths.

Here in the golden hills of Baluchistan the worst thing a man can do is flirt!

No romantic crystals in the mountain moonlight, no cutting in on the other fellow's girl. No divorces under any condition at any time. A man's woman in these painted hills is "to have and to hold from this day forward until death do us part."

Theft is the second greatest crime, murder comes third. The greatest punishment any man can get for any offence or set of offences is fourteen years in jail. But there are no jails, so they don't play for keeps.

BUT SOME EXCEPTIONS
And now I have to start explaining, because there are exceptions to all these rules.

With an Afghan in a high white turban and a Persian in a purple fez, I rolled away from Baluchistan's capital for the high hills today. I had two eyes and a passport, two arms, two cameras and two guides. We all packed guns.

We were to go out a few miles in a car, then mount camels and pad away into the hills. On the way the boys told me about Baluchistan.

There are two Baluchistan: British Baluchistan and another Baluchistan, which is also British.

Mounts Telescope on Automobile

MOUNTED on an automobile, the world's largest mobile telescope has been completed at Whittier, Cal., by S. M. Stoddy. The telescope can be elevated with a crank and gears to a height of six feet above the car. Being movable, it can be changed readily to advantageous points for study of the heavens. Edward K. Turner, associate of Stoddy, is shown peering into the telescope.

and starts me off sounding silly. One is ruled by Lord Willington, through army men, the other by Lord Willington through the Khan of Kalat. Both have Indian money, stamps, customs duties and the habit of letting their tails flutter in the breeze. But neither one has Indian laws.

Bearded old boys boss the show. They scrap such ideas as hanging for murder or jail for theft. If a man steals another man's wife—the unpardonable sin, and the man who lost his woman pulls out the other fellow's heart, that's quite okay. Quite the expected thing. Why not? Women up here are both scarce and sacred. In these hills are the only towns on earth where some women have six to a dozen husbands. They cost a dozen camels sometimes. Even midges women who don't stand more than four foot nine or ten are worth a dozen sheep. Therefore murder in protection of one's women is okay provided it's all kept in the family.

But suppose you or I stroll out among the tribesmen who live in tiny goatkin tents in the middle of shadeless fields. If I flirt with a velvet-eyed village belle I'll most certainly and definitely never be able to flirt again. The boys will take care of that. But the boys who molest the hills with my blood will be tried, still under tribal law, but by a British court. They might even be hanged, but that's doubtful.

As this was explained to me we drew up beside a tiny village. The leather and burlap tents were so low a man could not sit up straight in them, let alone stand up.

AN UNWELCOME VISITOR
The Afghan strolled in to explain our mission. Out stalked a bearded giant with black piercing eyes. There was palaver about me. I wanted to stroll around and see the place. I wouldn't photograph any women. An older man with a long straight nose, joined the pow-wow. They looked at me as if I was some thing pickled in alcohol, then waved us in among the camels.

Curious youngsters in red robe-like Riding Hood and dinky skull caps covered with money, came gleefully out to spy on us. Men were shearing long-haired sheep; in the huts some women were weaving rugs of camel hair, others were cooking over tiny little fires built of camel manure. There were camels everywhere, baby camels and old boys with runions on their knees. The family water supply was in a camel skin, their clothes were of sheep and camel wool. All the women wore red, all the men wore black.

"These people cannot live without their camels," the Afghan explained. "The camel to them is food and fuel and clothing, babies are often suckled on camel-milk, all food is cooked with camel milk. The family treading for water must ride the camel. That is why, in this country, to steal a man's camel is next to stealing his wife. Both cost him years of work to obtain."

"And the theft of a camel is worse than murder?" "Surely, alway."

"But a man can get another camel. He can't get another life." The Afghan shrugged his beefy shoulders. "The chiefs have been wise through the years," he said. And that was that.

We strolled into an open place where two men were driving four bulls over sheaves of wheat while boys stood at the side fanning away straw and chaff. Back of these men was another low hut, but as we roamed up there the bearded guardian barked some order and I was swung away.

"The virgins," the Afghan whispered. "You must not approach." I put up an argument for a few pictures but the big boy with the black eyes scowled. The girls, meantime, were peeking out from behind their spinning wool, dyeing it and weaving it into beautiful crimson patterns. The same sort of patterns these same Baluchis were weaving 3,000 years ago. They were big copper-colored girls with pretty eyes.

"Bridal costumes," the guide said. "The girls start making them when they are ten; at twenty, when they marry, they have enough clothing to last a lifetime." Then styles don't change much around here.

ATOP DESERT SHIP
"No sahib, nothing changes. New generations come and go, live and die again. The Baluchis are the purest race in the world. They have lived in these hills since the dawn of time, and they don't like strangers."

"I didn't take any magician to see that I was about as welcome as Hitler would be in a synagogue."

"We go now to the hills," the Afghan said. The Persian fellow was already up on a camel. Boys were roping a goatkin full of water to the big brute's side. Then they sat me on one of the things and he started to grumble and growl like a wrestler. Soon he got up and, seemed a mile in the air. He took on a swaying side-swing motion.

Abandoning ancient themes for the time being, DeMille depicts the revolt of the younger generation against the old-time religion which allows racketeering full sway.

Of particular brilliance is the performance contributed by Charles Bickford as the screen's most famous tough-mug, Matt McHugh. The McHugh brothers have been comedians ever since childhood. McHugh supports Lee Tracy in the doughboy film with Gloria Stuart. Berton Churchill and Donald Cook.

THE only feminine role of importance was played by Judith Allen who made her debut in this picture. She will be well worth watching from now on. Other principal roles were splendidly played by Richard Cromwell, Eddie Nugent, Ben Alexander and Harry Green.

CAPITOL. Paramount's picture-tization of Theodore Dreiser's famous novel, "Jennie Gerhardt," is now showing at the Capitol Theatre. Sylvia Sydney star of "An American Tragedy," has the title role. Others in the cast are Donald Cook, Mary Astor, H. B. Warner and Edward Arnold. Marion Gering directed. Also showing is "Mama Loves Papa," with Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland.

COURT INQUIRY IS SUGGESTED

Minority Report on Nursing Home Fails to Get Support of Council

"If you are not satisfied with the action of the council, you can demand a court inquiry," Mayor David Leeming declared at yesterday's meeting of the City Council when addressing Alderman Andrew McGavin in connection with a debate on the minority report dealing with the Maple Rest Nursing Home.

Previously the majority report, which stated that the charges against the institution were not based on fact and that it was being operated efficiently, had been adopted, with Aldermen McGavin and W. D. Todd voting against its adoption. Alderman P. R. Brown then moved that the minority report be received and filed, but Alderman McGavin insisted that a vote on its adoption be taken. He and Alderman Todd were the only ones to support the motion, so the document was received and filed.

REFUTE CHARGES
Allusion was again made to the serious charges contained in the report, and when Alderman McGavin endeavored to elaborate on the reasons for submitting the minority report, the mayor stated that the evidence on which the minority report was based also refuted the charges that were made.

"I for one am 100 per cent behind this majority report," his Worship asserted.

Alderman Todd ended the debate by declaring he was not satisfied with the manner in which Dr. Richard Peiton, medical health officer, inspected city institutions, and he suggested that the medical health officer make an inspection at least once a week and report to the council.

Esquimalt Board Changes Policy Of Registration

High school students in all grades, and pupils commencing their first year at school in the primary grade, who have to register before school opening in Esquimalt after this year, it was decided at a municipal school board meeting on Thursday.

In adopting this measure, the trustees were of the opinion that it would be of great assistance to the board and teachers if they knew how many students would be in attendance at schools. Formerly it was not until the first day of school that the number of pupils could be determined.

It was felt that the board should know what staff would be required beforehand and teachers given an opportunity of making necessary preparations. Therefore, it was decided to name a new pupil in every year of the high school and in the first grade school register.

ALLEGED BANDITS TO STAND TRIAL

Two Chinese Charged With Robbery Will Stand Trial on September 12

Fong Sing and Wing Hope, who are charged with being implicated in the robbery with violence of two Chinese employees at Halley Park, were committed for trial by Police Magistrate Jay yesterday in the provincial police court, and a little later their counsel, Frank Higgins, K.C., arranged for bail before Judge Lammiman.

Tuesday, September 12, was set as the date upon which they will appear before the court for election as to the manner of trial. W. B. Colvin, of the Attorney-General's Department, agreed with the arrangements. Dan Mar, the third of the accused, who pleaded guilty to the charge and took his trial before Magistrate Jay, awaits passing of sentence upon him, which has been set for Wednesday.

A strong plea for leniency has been made in the case of Dan Mar owing to the assistance he proved to the Provincial Police in preparing the case for the prosecution by his owning up to the crime and telling what he knew about it.

DOMINION FILM SHOWS NEW ERA

"This Day and Age" Stars Charles Bickford and Judith Allen—Stellar Supporting Cast

OFFICERS FOR COUNCIL NAMED

Regional Group of Canadian Clubs Select Mrs. P. B. Scurrah for Chairman

As a tribute to her untiring efforts in the interests of the Canadian Clubs in British Columbia, Mrs. P. B. Scurrah, Victoria, was unanimously re-elected to the post of "Madame Chairman" of the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs for the 1933-34 term. Headquarters will be in Victoria.

Mrs. Scurrah has successfully piloted the council through a year that has been a difficult one in view of the conditions prevailing throughout this Dominion and other countries of the world. She has carried on her duties so successfully that the council was able to present a comfortable bank balance to the annual meeting held at the Empress Hotel yesterday morning.

Through her visits to the clubs in the Province, Mrs. Scurrah was able to stimulate added interest in the movement and lay plans for extension of clubs to other parts of the Island and Interior.

AGAIN VICE-CHAIRMAN

F. B. Fowler, former manager of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was re-elected vice-chairman. Mr. Fowler has devoted a great deal of time to the movement during the past year. Another officer who was re-elected was Miss M. S. Ross, of Vancouver, who retains the post of second vice-chairman. During the last term both Mr. Fowler and Miss Ross were active in the work of the council.

W. T. Strath, barrister, also of Victoria, was re-elected secretary.

At the convention yesterday delegates from the following clubs were present: Victoria, Vancouver, Nanaimo, Alberni, Cumberland, Chilliwack, Penikese, Vernon, and Kamloops.

Other officers gave short addresses, thanking the delegates for honors conferred on them by re-election.

Pre-Payment of City Taxes Ends At Noon Today

TODAY is the final day for pre-payment of taxes, it was announced by city treasury department officials. All accounts become due on Tuesday and no interest will be paid on current tax payments after today.

Collections passed the $720,000 mark yesterday, and there is every indication that receipts should reach the neighborhood of $750,000 when the City Hall closes at 1 p.m.

B.C. EXHIBIT IS AT VANCOUVER

Chamber of Mines' Display Lauded by Provincial Officials Here

British Columbia's exhibit of natural resources, as shown at the World's Grain Show at Regina, has been transferred intact to the Vancouver Pacific Exhibition and is now on display there, Robert Dunn, Jr., deputy minister of mines, said yesterday, after returning from a brief visit to the Mainland. There is also an excellent exhibit of British Columbia gold and other minerals displayed by the B.C. Chamber of Mines.

The provincial exhibit features mines, agriculture, timber and fisheries in an outstanding display of the province's resources.

Yesterday, a sixty-one-pound Tye salmon from Campbell River was added to the natural exhibits, by a happy angler.

B.C. GOLD SHOWN

Gold from the Pioneer, Bralorne, Cariboo Gold Quartz, Reno, Herbert Arm, and other mines is shown in its native state in the Chamber of Mines exhibit, which Mr. Dunn classed as one of the outstanding attractions of the show.

Other ores and metals are also displayed, the whole drawing a ready volume of interest from the attending public. A demonstration of placer panning is attracting considerable attention, while working models of metal mines enliven the general display.

Under "Fifty Years Ago Today," The Colonist of August 26 carried a note of the visit on that date in 1883 of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, pastor of Plymouth Congregational Church, Brooklyn, who was billed to give a lecture in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on "Moral Uplift of Beauty and Luxury."

Comment was correct that "as a pulpit orator or lecturer he has no peer." Beecher's mastery of the English tongue, his dramatic power, his vivid imagination, his passionate enthusiasm for the subject in hand, and his humor mingled with pathos made him a preacher of almost unrivaled following in his time and country. His favorite theme was love, of man and of God as the essence of Christianity. He was a passionate foe of slavery and to expose its evils he on one occasion conducted a mock public auction of a white slave girl on the pulpit platform of his church.

"Sit down," Lord Rhinodin bade. The man in his big, secluded room gave to trophies of the hunt—antelope skins covered the floor; and lion and buffalo and elephant heads looked down from the walls, their glass eyes glinting in the light which was reflected, also, by fountains of shining nickel and spears.

"We have a very good model," said Lord Rhinodin, "because—"

The first, that he owned that counterfeitable trait which goes with what is called good birth and breeding, and generation of the like before him.

With this he had the physical suaveness and the gestures of suppressed power which are the result of training in sports. He had the slender waist of a boxer, with the shoulders of a discus thrower. His legs were trained to stand in comparison with his physique.

"Gladly," rejoined Tony. "But I am staying?"

"I'm afraid not. I've got to work." "Now? Tonight?"

"Not for a while, possibly can Tony." "I'll tell you. The Europa isn't in, but Ransdell was taken off quarantine and brought on ahead. He's a father's study now."

"Who's Ransdell?"

"Nobody I know. I haven't met him yet," he said. "Tony, He just came as a messenger from Africa. You see, Tony, some—some things were coming sent rush, by airplane and by the Europa, to father from

Awards Announced in Island Association's Garden Competition

Canadian Horticultural Council's Challenge Cup Won for Second Year in Succession by Mrs. J. M. Abbott—Big Entry List

AWARDS are announced today for the Canadian Horticultural Council's Challenge Cup for the best all-round garden on Vancouver Island, and the medals awarded by the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association for the different classes in this competition.

The Island Garden competition, inaugurated six years ago by the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association, and steadily growing in importance and value to the affiliated societies, for whose benefit it is primarily designed, drew into competition this year the choicest gardens of six different districts. Gardens were entered by the Victoria Horticultural Society, North and South Saanich Horticultural Society, Bamerton Horticultural Society, Cowichan Agricultural Society (Horticultural Branch), Ladysmith Horticultural Society, Comox Agricultural and Industrial Association (Horticultural Branch).

COMPLETE SATISFACTION

The onerous task of judging was again carried out with complete satisfaction to all by E. W. White, Assistant Provincial Horticulturist, and the thanks of all concerned are due to the Minister of Agriculture for the co-operation of the Department of Agriculture, without which the competition could not be carried on.

All gardens are judged on a score card providing a total of 400 points, of which 200 points are allotted to the flower garden, 200 points to vegetables, and fifty to fruit. The magnificent challenge cup donated by the Canadian Horticultural Council, which goes to the garden scoring the highest total, is won this year for the second time in succession by Mrs. J. M. Abbott, 924 Falmouth Road, Saanich.

The gold medal of the V.I.H.A. awarded to the best all-round garden handicapped by lack of a water supply that permits the use of a hose and sprinkler was won by Mrs. W. Casey, Saanich. The silver medal of the V.I.H.A. awarded to the best all-round garden worked entirely by the owner without paid help goes to T. R. Bell, 2605 Dalhousie Street, Oak Bay. The two bronze medals of the V.I.H.A. awarded to the gardens (not winning any other award) scoring most points respectively for flowers—Mrs. W. M. MacLachlan, Duncan, and for vegetables—Herbert Smith, Courtenay.

Little Bedtime Stories

Why Slow Poke Never Hurries

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Slow Poke the Box Turtle, who was lying on his back in the Lone Little Path in the Green Forest, pushed out his head as far as he could and bent it backward until he could push against the ground with it. Then he began to wave his arms and legs wildly. Peter Rabbit, who was looking on, just had to laugh. Of course it wasn't at all nice of him to do that, but Slow Poke couldn't help it. After a few minutes Slow Poke stopped to rest. "Phew!" exclaimed Slow Poke. "That certainly is mighty hard on a fellow's neck. I am glad I don't have to do it very often. I wish Reddy Fox could be in my place just once. He might be a little more thoughtful of other people."

Peter looked a little puzzled. "What are you trying to do anyway, Slow Poke?" he asked. "I don't see any sense in it."

"What do you suppose I'm trying to do?" retorted Slow Poke rather testily. "Do you suppose I am doing this just for fun? I'm trying to roll over on to my feet, of course. However would I get there if I don't do it this way?"

This was more than Peter could answer. Instead he reached out and slipped one paw under Slow Poke. He gave him a flop and there was Slow Poke right side up once more. Slow Poke gave a long sigh of relief.

"Thank you, Peter Rabbit. Thank you so much," said he. "I don't know what I should have done but for your help. I suppose I would have got turned over finally, but it would have been hard work."

"Don't mention it," replied Peter. "By the way, Slow Poke, what is the fastest you can go wheezy?"

Slow Poke started off at just about the same rate he had been going when Peter first met him. Of course it wasn't fast at all.

"Do you call that hurrying?" asked Peter.

"It is hurrying as much as I can hurry," replied Slow Poke. "You see, I don't ever need to really hurry. I never could see any sense in hurrying. What good does it do?"

"Well," said Peter. "If some of us didn't hurry sometimes we wouldn't live long. We have to hurry to get

"You forget my house and that I don't have to run away from any danger," replied Slow Poke.

"You forget my house and that I don't have to run away from any danger," replied Slow Poke. "I carry safely right with me. As long as I don't have to run away from danger, what is the use of hurrying? What is the use of getting all out of breath and all tired out? I can't get any more food by hurrying. I may be slow. I suppose I am slow. But I beg you to notice, Brother Peter, that my family is famous for the long life of its members. We ed yesterday that he would make a tour of Provincial ridings between now and the date of the election, and would make his plans known in this connection soon after his return to the capital from a brief visit to Seattle. The Premier left on the 3 p.m. boat for the Sound City, planning to go straight through to Rainier Park, where today he will take part in a centenary celebration in honor of his father, the late William Tolmie, first white man to visit the area. He will return on Sunday morning.

Premier Tolmie Is To Cover Province In Unionist Cause

Definite announcement of the Government's plans in connection with the election is expected next week, after the Labor Day holiday.

"Why doesn't Spotty the Turtle have two little doors that open and shut like yours?" asked Peter.

"Because Spotty, like my other cousin Snapper, is in or close to the water most of the time. The water gives him protection."

"I see," said Peter thoughtfully. "I see."

STARTING TO BUILD HALL AT QUALICUM

QUALICUM BEACH, Sept. 1.—The shareholders of the Qualicum Beach Community Hall decided to purchase two more lots behind those they had already bought, making the total amount of land one acre. They decided to go ahead with the building of the hall proper and as much of the basement as required for the present. The carpentry will be done by H. Jarvis and Mr. Clark, the electric wiring by R. Wilmer.

Sooke

Recent visitors to Sooke included Miss Polly Reid, Miss M. Reid, and Miss Sally Reid, of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Howard, of Kamloops, were recent visitors to their many friends here.

Sergeant and Mrs. B. Acreman, Miss Gladys Acreman, Miss Grace Stevenson, Master Fred and Walter Acreman, who spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Acreman, Sr., have returned to their homes in Victoria.

A concert and dance will be held in Sooke Hall, tomorrow night. The programme will commence at 8:30 o'clock, to be followed at 9:30 o'clock by refreshments and dancing. The proceeds from this event will benefit the Children's Camp.

St. Andrew's Y.P.S. The Young People's Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will hold a Labor Day hike to the home of Mr. Walter Patterson, Gordon Head. Members of the society and their friends are asked to meet at the end of the Mount Tolmie car line at 10 a.m. They will be expected to bring their own luncheon, and coffee will be supplied. Swimming and softball will be enjoyed.

Recently, when I was trying to get a telephone call through, writes an Englishman, my listening for the familiar buzzing was suddenly interrupted by an operator's "What number are you dialing?" "Darling!" Could it be—a telephone operator?

"Beg pardon," I gasped timidly. "What number are you dialing?" came the question once more. I struggled back a desire to banter small talk. There was something hard and commanding in that voice that I could not reconcile with such inviting words.

Bravely I ventured again. "I—er—what did you say?"

A definite snort of exasperation strangled over the wires, followed by a slightly acidulated: "What number are you dialing?" "Darling!" There must be some mistake. Oh, "dialing." Of course! Of course!

Arrested After Lengthy Search

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont., Sept. 1
(CP).—Byrdan Krga, alias Robert Kruiger, alias Stots, wanted in Vancouver since 1930 to face a charge of attempted murder, was arrested here yesterday.

Krga was taken while working underground at the Sylvanite Mine and admitted his identity when confronted with a handbill bearing his picture. The thirty-three-year-old foreigner was being held here pending arrival of officials from Vancouver.

Sandy was learning to play the banjo. One night, while he was strutting about the room, skirling for all he was worth, his wife attempted a mild protest.

"That's and awfu' noise y're making," she said.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"
If September 2 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4:30 to 5 p.m. and from 7:45 to 8:20 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 to 9:40 a.m., from 2 to 2:30 p.m.
and from 9 to 9:25 p.m.

Influences operating on this date will probably bring a great deal of pleasure into your life. You will seem to have a greater capacity for enjoyment on this day, and things that would ordinarily mean little or nothing to you will affect you greatly. Dancing should bring great relaxation and satisfaction.

The child born on this September 2 will in all probability take after his male parent. The girls will, all through life, get along better with men and in many things will have the male point of view. In the event that this child turns to one of his parents more than to the other for affection and guidance, there is a possibility of the development of a rift between the parents.

If September 2 is the date of your birth, you are, more than likely, the type of person who moves calmly and unburiedly through life, deviating little from a determined course of action and slowly but surely beating down all opposition.

Yours is a methodical existence.
There is little of the haphazard about it and when good breaks come your way, the general consensus of opinion is, that you had planned them all and that they were absolutely to be expected. You are too much of a machine to be a really charming person to have about. You are not the type to attract attention and you come and go as you please with few people paying any attention to you.

You will succeed seems inevitable, and this, not because of any outstanding or remarkable qualities inherent in your make-up, but rather because of your efficiency. You are always on hand when you are wanted, or when someone is wanted;

you invariably know the other person's job and can step right in and do it as well, if not better, than that person. When the time comes for the filling of some truly important post, you will just seem to be there, the very one for the job.

Born on September 2, you are not an emotional person; you will take love and marriage as a matter of course. As a parent you will not be unusual; you will be there when your children need you, but you will not prove very stimulating to them nor very inspiring.

Giants Wins Double-Header From Boston to Widen Lead in National Loop

Giants' Pitchers In Great Display Before Big Crowd

Carl Hubbell Blanks Braves in Ten Innings, 2-0—While Fitzsimmons Defeats Them, 5-3—Pirates Down Cards to Take Second Berth—Yanks Lose Again

By BILL KING
Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON, Sept. 1 (AP)—The mighty arms of Carl Hubbell and Fred Fitzsimmons both pitched and batted New York Giants in a double victory today that dropped Boston Braves in the first place, a single point behind Pittsburgh Pirates, before 48,000 spectators, largest league crowd of the season. Hubbell outclassed Fred Frankhouse by a wide margin while hurling the Giants to a 2-0 win in the tenth inning of the opener. His famous screw-ball baffled the Braves as he chalked up his twentieth victory of the season and his tenth shutout. Fitzsimmons was almost as effective while working for his 5-3 triumph in the second half of the clean-sweep, which lengthened the Giants' lead over the virtually deadlocked Pirates and Braves to seven games.

Frankhouse, with his fast curve misbehaving, encountered plenty of trouble but the brilliant performance of his infield mates kept the Giants scoreless until the tenth, which the Boston right-hander opened by fanning the veteran Travis Jackson, in at third base for Johnny Vergez, who underwent an appendix operation last night.

Fitzsimmons had the second game firmly under his thumb until the eighth inning, when he was bunched four of their six hits for three runs that tied the score.

YORKSHIRE XI WINS CRICKET HONORS AGAIN

Capture County Championship for Third Straight Year—Sussex Next

LONDON, Sept. 1 (CP)—For the third season in succession Yorkshire are the first class county cricket champions. With the exception of one game which cannot affect the leadership, the county schedule was completed today and Yorkshire's long early season lead proved sufficient to carry them over a less successful period in the past few weeks.

Yorkshire finished up the thirty-game grind with an average of 70 per cent. Sussex and Essex meet in the last fixture and Sussex wins they will have 60 per cent. SCOTT-PAINE AND WOOD READ FOR GREAT RACE

Stands to Seat 1,000,000 Built On River Course

Neither Challenger Nor Challenged Ventures Any Predictions on Eve of Harmsworth Trophy Race—English Craft Tuned to Fine Point For Important Event Today

By DAVIS J. WILKIE
Associated Press Staff Writer.

ALGONAC, Mich., Sept. 1 (AP).—Her bottom carefully coated with three layers of graphite, Miss Britain III, the tiny English-built hydroplane which Hubert Scott-Paine hopes to lift the Harmsworth Trophy, was declared by her mechanics and pilot tonight to be as nearly ready for tomorrow's contest with the giant defender, Miss America X, as their skill and ingenuity could make her.

There was comparatively little activity around the boat wells of the two speediest water craft in the world, as power-boating interest switched to Detroit, where the Gold Cup contest, second in line of the world's speedboat trophies, was being run.

NO PREDICTIONS
As has been their policy since it became assured they would meet in the Harmsworth contest, neither Scott-Paine nor Gar Wood, veteran defender, tonight ventured any predictions on the outcome.

There was activity galore today along the shores that line the seven-mile Harmsworth course. Grandstands were being hammered into shape with a seating capacity far in excess of the expectations of the most sanguine of speedboat enthusiasts.

One veteran of power-boating estimated there were seating accommodations for approximately 1,000,000 people.

The first of the series of races for the trophy is scheduled to start at 3 p.m., E.T.T. tomorrow.

WOOD SERIOUS
Gar Wood is not taking Hubert Scott-Paine's challenge with Miss Britain III lightly.

"He may have something," Wood said. "You know Segrave's boat was small and light and certainly gave a good account of itself."

Wood has practically rebuilt Miss America X. He has added 100 horse-power to each of the four motors by rebuilding and has greatly strengthened the sides of his craft by adding laminated wood.

Since 1920, when he won the trophy at Cowes, the veteran Detroit boat-builder has successfully defended it. This year there's something new in the way of a serious-minded challenger young challenger with the smallest and lightest entry.

SCARBOROUGH, Eng. (CP).—One of the large number of reputed barrows or ancient burial mounds in the Scarborough district, situated on a distant golf links near North Bay, has been excavated by the local archaeological society under the direction of Rev. O. H. Wilson. It has proved to be a long barrow dating probably from the early Bronze Age, about 1700 B.C.

The mound is 67 feet by 38 feet wide, and definitely six and possibly seven burnt internments have been found. A food vessel has been found, finely worked with herringbone and other ornamentation, and after consultation with the British Museum authorities, is believed to be unique in possessing four lugs handles, each subdivided into four distinct sections.

It is intended to excavate other reputed barrows and archaeological sites in the Autumn.

BRISBANE, Australia (BUP).—A mysterious foreign ship, old and dilapidated in appearance, but capable of out-distancing all pursuers, has been haunting the British Empire Island group, in the Pacific. The ship, which is believed to be manned by Japanese and to have a crew of at least twenty, was apparently investigating the Ellice group. It was first noticed by native fishermen, who reported to the authorities that a strange ship had anchored off the reef. They said anchored off the reef. They said anchored off the reef. They said anchored off the reef.

Later the mystery ship was again located at anchor off another island. Dawson, who rode on to Lincoln and Concord, and gave the first alarm to the "minute men" was Doctor Prescott, who happened to be calling on a girl in Lexington on the momentous night when he met Revere. He was later captured by the British and died in captivity at Halifax.

The Most Roundabout Mail Route—The island of Guam which is a United States possession, is in plain sight of Rota Island, but the latter is subject to Japan as part of the Mariana group.

A letter addressed to Rota from Guam, is dispatched to Manila, 1,804 miles away, thence it travels to Yokohama, Japan, 1,550 miles away, and reaches Rota after an additional trip of 1,500 miles via Saipan Island. All this while, the destination has been only thirty miles away from Guam.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
Versatile Paul Revere—This patriot, politician, soldier, gold-and-silver-smith artist, engraver, mechanic and inventor, bell-founder, industrial pioneer, did not make the ride for which he is famous. He was despatched by Joseph Warren to Lexington and Concord to warn the "minute men" of the expedition sent thither by Gage. Revere only reached Lexington, where he was joined by William Dawes and Doctor Samuel Prescott. According to Revere's own account, he was arrested by a British patrol near Lexington, so that he was unable to proceed. Dawes was intercepted a few minutes later and the man who really completed the ride was Doctor Prescott, who happened to be calling on a girl in Lexington on the momentous night when he met Revere. He was later captured by the British and died in captivity at Halifax.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

PREVENTING BAD DREAMS
You find yourself dreaming for two or three nights in succession, and the dreams are not pleasant. All sorts of unpleasant situations arise in these dreams in some of which you are a coward, sometimes a terrible accident occurs, perhaps a loved one is in danger, and other distressing events occur, so that it is with great relief that you wake to find that it was only a dream.

You try to remember what you had eaten that night before you retired, only to find that it was the same as usual, so that the bad dream was not due to food.

As you know we have those who can interpret dreams or at least claim to be able to do so.

There are many well known nerve specialists who have seemingly been able to help certain nervous cases by interpreting their dreams; bringing them into the light of day as it were.

What may be the cause of these bad dreams? Are they due to some "mental" or nervous condition?

There is no question but that our mental attitude, our mental condition (particularly if we are tired mentally) often has much to do with causing dreams.

However, one of the frequent causes of bad dreams and one that is overlooked, is that waste products remain too long in the system and act as a poison in the blood. It is this poison that often causes bad dreams.

Dr. S. Kalter, Munich, was able to give help to a number of nervous patients afflicted with bad dreams by making sure that these wastes were thrown out of the body.

The wastes usually accumulate by a "sanguine" temperament.

By the use of medicines such as Epsom salts which remove wastes not only from the large intestine but from the blood also, dreams are prevented in many cases.

By the simple method of doing some hard physical work such as sawing wood, shoveling sand, perspiration is induced, the bowels move regularly, excess wastes are removed and no bad dreams occur.

This method of hard physical exercise, instead of complete rest, has cured many "mental" cases.
